This WNBC/Marist Poll of New York State reports:

Presidential Campaign 2008

- A McCain/Rice ticket would edge out both a Clinton/Obama or Obama/Clinton ticket for New York’s 31, usually true blue, electoral votes: 49% of registered voters in New York State support a John McCain/Condoleezza Rice ticket compared with 46% who support Hillary Clinton as president and Barack Obama as vice president. The Democrats don’t fare any better in New York with Obama at the top of the ticket as president and Clinton as vice president. McCain/Rice receives 49%, and Obama/Clinton has 44%. Although an Obama led Democratic ticket does better against McCain/Rice among non-enrolled voters than a Clinton/Obama ticket, Clinton/Obama is stronger with women against the Republicans.

Question Wording: If the 2008 presidential election were held today, whom would you support if the candidates are Hillary Clinton as president and Barack Obama as vice president for the Democrats and John McCain as president and Condoleezza Rice as vice president for the Republicans? Governor Paterson’s First Month

- Nearly one-third of New York’s voters are unsure how to rate the new governor: As Governor Paterson approaches the end of his first month in office, 32% of registered voters are unsure how to assess him. This is down from the 48% who were unable to rate the job he was doing as lieutenant governor just a month ago. 35% rate the job he is doing as excellent or good, unchanged from March. But, 33% describe his performance in office so far as fair or poor nearly double the proportion of voters who shared this view in the previous poll.

Question Wording: Would you rate the job Governor David Paterson is doing in office as excellent, good, fair, or poor?
